Foreword

WE, THE STAFF, PROUDLY PRESENT THE PALLADIUM OF 1948. MAY IT KEEP ALIVE "YESTERDAY'S MEMORIES, TODAY'S REALITIES, AND TOMORROW'S DREAMS."

Dedicated to . . .

All Who Served

THE ALMA MATER

Our vows of love, our vaws af faith Dear school, we've said to thee Each strong man, each gentle maid Will ever loyal be, Not far a day, not far a year Shall we each other greet As fellow students, fellaw friends, But till in Heaven we meet.

Chorus: Sò hail, Alma Mater, Dear schoal, we all love thee, So hail Alma Mater, We'll aye be true to thee.

Sa when in days that are to come Fand mem'ries we recall, The mem'ries of dear S. T. C. We'll cherish most of all. Your stately portals, ivied walls, In dreams again we'll see And hearts again will sadly yearn For you our S. T. C.

MY SONG

My song is the wind's song,
The song of the wondering seo;
And the burning song of the desert
Shall ever belong to me.
My song is the tree's song,
The song of flowers in bloom;
And the hoppy singing of children
Shall ever enchant my room.
My song is the rood song —
To tread where the noble have trad —
And I know that my song is beautiful,
Because it comes from God.

-Travis Jones, Freshman.

THE MARCH OF TIME

VALENTINE BALL. The main attraction of this affair was the crowning of Anne Hadley. She was chosen by popular vote of S. T. C. students as miss S. T. C. Music was furnished by S. T. C. Troy Wavemen and the decorations carried out the Valentine theme. Miss S. T. C. walked through a large red Valentine at one end of Wright Hall and was crowned by Dr. C. B. Smith. Edwin Howard, President of S. G. A., gave Miss Hadley her Queen's bouquet of red roses.

PIZEN. "Pizen," written and directed by J. W. Blackwell, can easily be said to be one of the most moving performances the dramatic department of S. T. C. produced. The cast, headed by Miss Dorothy Pope, was superb. Mary Jane Thompson and Ernest Bazemore, as the parents and Regal Willis as the spoiled rich man's son, gave excellent performances. Frances Beck, sister, and Jack Solomon, brother, were very good as supporting cast with Erskine Key as sheriff.

Mr. Blackwell's directing was good, because both performances were "swell."

SPRING RECITALS. The S. T. C. Band, Choir, and individual musicians presented the annual spring recital in three separate programs. The Band, under the direction of Mr. Larry Peterson, and accompanied by Miss Flake Joiner was a program enjoyed by many. The Choir has a reputation as being tops in this state, and this recital was positive proof of this. Sewal's special numbers were presented by the choir.

The piano and voice recital, consisting of students of Mrs. R. H. Erwin, and Mrs. George Rainer, was the last of the Spring Recitals. This was really a fine program, displaying much fine talent as solo pianists and singers.

This series of musical programs was presented by the Music Department and was considered the height of entertainment to our school and many visitors.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SLEPT HERE. This hilarious comedy was presented by the dramatic department of S. T. C., under the competent direction of Miss Jeanette Stout. The leading cast was: Bruce Long, Joyce Rump, Martha MacCartney, Louis Tilley, Don Dearborn, James Byrd, Bill Coffield. Supporting cast: Frances Webb, Marjorie Taylor, Marion Nixon, James Patrenos, June MacArthur, and John Jackson.

COTTON BALL. The S. T. C. V. sponsored the Cotton Ball in the Spring Quarter, 1947. At this ball Miss Marion Bowers was crowned Cotton Queen by Tommy Towey, president of the S. T. C. V.

The S. T. C. Wavemen furnished the music, and scenes from the Old South decorated Wright Hall.

PIANO RECITAL. Three students of Mrs. R. H. Erwin were presented in a recital given in Kilby Auditorium as a mid-summer musical program open to the public. Mr. Aubry Redmon, former S. T. C. pupil, Mr. Raymond Yarbrough, and Mr. James Patrenos performed, and the program was well received by all.

SQUARE DANCE. S. T. C. really gaes far square doncing as we saw in the two nights the schaal spansared square dancing in Wright Hall. Professional musicions and instructors were engaged to make this event a real success. Wright Holl really rocked and a big time was had by all.

BIG SISTER PICNIC AND MIXER DANCE. The first social function of the fall quarter was the big sister picnic and the mixer dance.

The picnic graunds and all the girls gaing to school here participated in it. The big sisters, upper-classmen, were responsible for getting their little sister to go to the event; thus the name, "Big Sister Picnic."

The "Mixer Dance," strictly informal, fallowed the picnic. "No Dates" was the rule of the evening. This made getting acquainted with more people much easier, and gave the social affairs of S. T. C. a "bang-up" start-aff.

THANKSGIVING DANCE. The first farmol of the fall quorter was the Thanksgiving Dance. The Tray Wavemen supplied their usual goad music. The dance was considered an outstanding success. It was spansared by the Saphomore Class.

CHRISTMAS DANCE. Pace Hall sponsored the Xmos dance that was held in Wright Hall. The music was rendered by Jeff Bradfard's Troy Wavemen and the decarations were af the Christmas theme with two huge Christmas trees as the center attractions.

CHOIR AND BAND XMAS CONCERTS. The S. T. C. music department presented its band and choir in the onnual Christmas Concerts an December 19, 1947.

The band gave its cancert at 9:50 an Wednesdoy morning. The music, band arrangements of Christmas Carols, could not hove been better. Mr. Stephenson and his band deserve a large note of appreciation for this concert.

At 8:00 an Wednesday night, the chair gave the Cantata, "King of Kings" with several students os salaists. S. T. C. is very proud of aur fine choir and Mr. Stephenson. They shawed us whot on excellent chair they are when they gave this cancert.

1947 HOMECOMING. The Homecaming program apened with an evening piono ond voice recital featuring Elaise Temple Anspach, pianist, fram the faculty of the Cadek Canservatory, Tennessee.

After this recital, the Homecoming Dance was held in Wright Hall. Music was furnished by the callege Dance Bond.

The following day, the pragram was: Registratian, conducted taurs of the compus, an address by Senatar Lister Hill, dedication of Pace Hall in memorium to Dr. M. D. Pace, alumni meeting, borbecue dinner, arts program, tea, and finally o football game to end the festivities.

Miss Ann Wood was elected Miss Homecoming, and was crowned Queen of Hamecoming during the Annual Dance.

COLLEGE APPRECIATION DAY. The tawn of Troy sponsored S. T. C. Appreciation Day and the boll game with Middle Tennessee that night.

The event started with a parade thraugh the tawn af Troy. Three cars in which Dr. Smith, Mayor Thompson, and Mrs. Tobiska were riding, lead the parade. Next came the college band, lead by Prentis Melder, drum majar, with Betty Reeves, Jane Griffin, Jonnie Sue Boswell, Jerry Crump, Bettye Doswell, and Anne Harris as majorettes. The Pep Club was next in line, and then came the floats. The Troy High School band joined the parade at the corner of South Bründidge and Elm Streets.

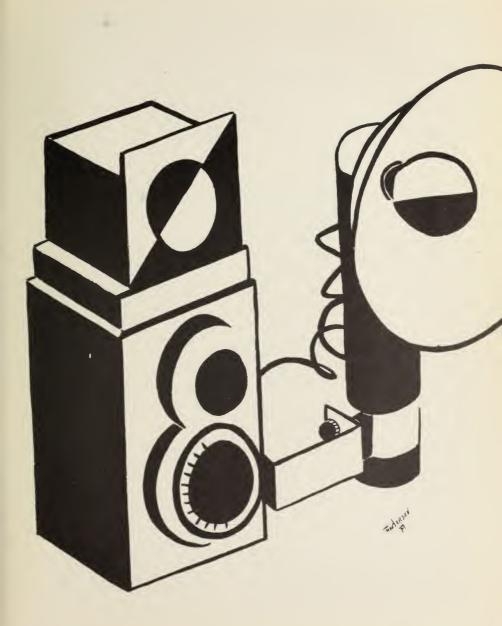

The parade stopped in tawn near the manument an the square. Here Mayar Thompson presented Dr. Smith with a plaque from the town of Troy to S. T. C. A prize to the best float was presented to the "Specs" Club. A Publications float (Palladium and Tropolitan) was awarded second prize and S. G. A. received third.

CARL SANDBURG VISITS S. T. C. A huge crowd gathered in Wright Hall ta see and hear Carl Sandburg, one of the colloge's mose important guests. Mr. Sandburg held his audience for an hour and a half, and if he had chosen, he could have made it longer.

ROTARY INTERNATIONAL LECTURES. Four lectures by outstanding speakers on international topics were attended by many college and townspeople. Stephen B. Labunski spoke on "Understanding the Slavic Peoples;" next Hubert S. Liang spoke on "Understanding the Peoples of China;" Hans W. Rosenhauph an "Peoples of Western Europe;" Newton H. Bell on "Understanding the Peoples of the Moslem World."

UNIVERSITY TRIO. The String Trio from the University of Alabama gave a very fine pragram in Kilby Auditarium for students and visitars.

Dr. Altan O'Steen was pianist, Mr. Ottaker Cadek, violinist, and Miss Margaret Christy was the violincellist.

INTER-DENOMINATIONAL RELIGIOUS COUNCIL

The purpose of the Inter-Denominational Religious Council, under the Student Government Associotion, is to sponsor religious activities on the compus. It is the aim of this organization to act as a connecting link between the churches of Troy and the students of the College. Vesper services, sponsored by the Council, give the students an opportunity to meet the ministers of Troy, and to participate in the religious services. The highest aspiration of the Council is to promote tolerance and understanding through inter-denominational activities.

TROY STATE vs. MARION

The first quarter of this ball game displayed all characteristics of being a wellmatched affair with neither team threatening seriously and neither scoring. In the second period, however, Troy State went to work and fired in three fast touchdowns before Marion could catch their breath, Lamar "Doc" Bowden squirmed 60 yards for the first tally. Queen's try was good for the extra point. Queen also accounted for the second tally on an 18 yard dash off left tackle. Midway of the period, Bowden intercepted a Marion aerial and went to the 30. Fullback Gene Norman carried it over three plays later from the one yard stripe. At the half the Wavemen led 21-0.

Troy garnered another marker when Halfback Bobby Riley went 29 yards to score. Two more tallies came in the last of the game. Scoring were Mack Rooks over left guard from the one yard stripe, and Ted Franklin from the four yard stripe, over left tackle.

TROY STATE vs. AUSTIN PEAY

With only three minutes left to play, Troy State took to the air to tally two touchdowns and came from behind to whip the heavy Austin Peay gridders 13-7, in Clarksville, Tenn. The Austin Peay Governors tallied in the first quorter. After holding the Governors, Troy took to the air. After End Grady Parson took o pass to the five-yard stripe, Fullback Gene Norman lugged the leather over. Queen's try was wide. Troy was on the short end of the 7-6 score. Troy retook the ball on downs and drove to the thirty, where a pass to Fullback Norman accounted for the final marker. This time Queen's foot connected, and game time ran out before the Wavemen could kick off.

This was a very big up-set for the Governors because they had the Wavemen outweighed in olmost every position.

TROY STATE vs. JACKSONVILLE STATE

In this game, end play was spatty, blacking and tackling was done ineffectively, and offensive playing was at a minimum. Jacksanville tallied early in the second quarter after a bad pass fram center gave them the ball an the Tray 10. Twa plays later they swept acrass into promised land. The final score came midway of the faurth periad an a pass into the left flat after three plays into the line failed to yield yardage. For Jacksanville it was more than just another victory. They had faced what had been rated as the number three team in Alabama and had ruined a perfect Hamecoming for the Wavemen.

TROY STATE 0 - JACKSONVILLE STATE 14.

Troy State ended an inspired football season by defeating the Seminoles, 36-6, in a Thanksgiving Day attraction. It featured passes by Trussell and Ezell, runs by Queen, Franklin, Beck and Normon, and tackling by Long, Davis, Terry, Green and Bassett.

Quarterback Billy Trussell heaved to Fullback Johney Rice for the first score; Quarterback Billy Ezell hit Fullback Gene Norman with on aerial for the second marker; Halfback Ted Franklin intercepted a pass and ran 36 yards for the third marker; Norman carried over from the two for the fourth marker; Halfback Ersell Beck smashed over from the one for the fifth; and Rice intercepted a pass on his own 32 and hotfooted it down the right sidelines for the last tally. It was a fitting climax of a good footboll seoson for Troy State Teachers College.
